

PRESIDENT ROGER'S WEEKLY BLOG

Hi everyone, I trust you are having a great Easter. No meeting Easter Monday.

PNG Projects Group

What a fantastic night on Monday hearing from Tony Austin (RC Warrnambool) re his plans for his next trip to PNG notwithstanding his personal battle with malaria. The groups unimog, tank and shed are ready to go as soon as covid allows. It was interesting to also hear about Tony's work with a benefactor to set up a philanthropic cacao processing operation to help PNG nationals help themselves..

Tony has kindly agreed to take a playground to PNG and Valerie Lyons and Wayne Jenkins presented Tony with a cheque for $700 which will contribute to his sea freight costs.

It was great to see Belinda Ranken and Honorary Rotarian David Price in attendance.

Bunnings BBQ – Easter Saturday

Thankyou all for great effort on Saturday. It was a great atmosphere amongst us all and we all survived the hustle and bustle of the day. Total sales including " the square EFTPOS" of $1839 and expenses of $411 gives us a profit of $1428. Well done to all concerned, a great effort.

Mount Martha House Community Garden

Retaining walls have been constructed by MPSC .Wicking beds are in. Robyn Ruhl and Leanda Care will tell us all about the journey AT OUT 17TH May meeting. Jenny Mihan has moved from Mt Martha House (MPSC) to Seawinds Community Hub.(DHHS) but will still help us cook a snag in the Village on 24th April.

RORP

We now have a booking. Vessel URAL Voyage 115N ETD Melbourne 7/5/21. The container is scheduled to be delivered to Greg Buchanan's property Gormans Rd Moorooduc on Friday 30/4/21. We'll need volunteers over the weekend of 1-2 /5/21 to help transfer playgrounds from Captain RORP's shed and into the container. It's all happening Thanks Wayne for all your hard work and perseverance,. particularly across the District, is making RORP a reality.

Have a great Easter..... Enjoy the Autumn sunshine..... Roger
